By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

DUMONT, Md. (AP)—President Eisenhower is heading for the political firing line next week, contending the country is rebounding from the recession and can look forward to continued recovery.

The President, spending a week end at his Catoclin Mountain Lodge near here, Friday hailed a new government report on the job situation.

The Commerce and Labor departments said unemployment decreased by 588,000 last month—a more-than-usual drop for September. They also reported more jobs were opening up in durable goods plants that were hard hit by the recession.

In a statement with political overtones, Eisenhower said the figures are evidence of an "accelerating rate of recovery." Without spelling them out, he said "There are also good reasons for expecting a continuing recovery in our economy during the months ahead."

The President undoubtedly spoke with an awareness that the Democrats are trying to capitalize on issues that touch the private purge during the congressional election campaign. He said it is "noted worthy that the improvement in employment conditions . . . has been accomplished while the cost of living has been virtually stable."

Chicago Fire Re-enacted— Cow and All

CHICAGO (AP)—The great Chicago fire of 1871 was re-enacted Thursday at the site where the conflagration started, supposedly after Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lantern.

The small fire in the reproduction of the O'Leary barn didn't cause any trouble for the firemen, but the cow, a brown Swiss, was a bulky bossy and wound up playing the leading role.

Fireman John Baldwin, wearing a polka dot gown and bonnet in his role as Mrs. O'Leary, led the cow into the barn and tied her in a stall. She balked. Baldwin led her outside and then tried to lead her back in, but she wouldn't go.

Fire Commissioner Robert Quinn took the lead, and the cow responded to the authority, calmly clumping into another stall. Baldwin then sat on a milking stool and got a fair flow of milk in a bucket. Then the cow was again led outside as it was time to burn the barn.

Stockyard workers, sought to lead her on a truck. She balked again, broke loose, and ran a block with six men in pursuit. She was captured but refused to get into the truck. Firemen finally got her aboard.

Then the barn was set and the program went off as planned. This was the last fire on the historic West Side site, the first department said. Construction will start soon on a 5½-million-dollar building, the department's Fire Academy. The re-enactment was in connection with observance of Fire Prevention Week.

In the fire of 1871, which started Oct. 8, more than 300 persons died, some 90,000 who were made homeless, and property damage was estimated at more than 200 million dollars.

U. S. Crops to Hit All-Time Peak

WASHINGTON (AP)—A harvest time government report indicated today that this year's crop production will top the previous record high by nearly 11 per cent.

Reporting this prospect, the Agriculture Department said generally favorable weather and harvesting conditions during September boosted production prospects above that of a month earlier.

The previous record was set in 1948 and matched in 1950 and 1957. Featuring this year's production are indicated record crops of both wheat and corn, the two major grains.

The department said Southern crops are not completely safe from weather hazards, because rains in some cases had retarded development.

Conditions prevailing Oct. 1, the department said, indicated that the total volume of all crops would be 11 per cent of the 1947-48 average.

The previous record high was 100 per cent.

Weather

ARKANSAS — Partly cloudy to day and rather cold.

EAST TEXAS — Cloudy today and cooler with rain.

STRICTLY SCIENTIFIC—The current hula hooping craze has reached even the hallowed halls of Ivy, where it is now recognized as just a matter of Newton's laws of motion. At Southwestern College in Memphis, Tenn., President Peyton N. Rhodes utilizes the physics he formerly taught to whirl the hoop as an unbelievably cool pause in the background. Below is Dr. Rhodes' "explanation" of how it's done.

PHYSICS AND THE HOOP

"Actually, what is involved is the conservation of angular momentum, something that should certainly be conserved by all and sundry. It is merely necessary to exert a small, but carefully regulated impulse (the product of force X time) by allowing a hypersensitive acroclitic to impinge on a small portion of the interior periphery of a short section of the hoop. The impulse, applied with some discretion, serves to produce a change in the angular momentum of the hoop, and if the force of this impulse is so directed that there is a small vertical component of this momentum, opposing the force of gravity which acts uniformly over the plane of the hoop, then the resulting horizontal motion will be maintained with rare uniformity to the amazement of all beholders who do not realize that the whole deal is just as easy as falling off a log."

Polio Peak Hits During September

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 1958 peak for polio cases definitely appears to have come during the third week in September.

A Public Health Service official said today the trend since has been downward.

The states listed 315 new cases last week, 133 of them paralytic. The revised figures for the preceding week ended Sept. 27 are 388 cases, 179 paralytic. The highs for the year — 431 cases in the week ended Sept. 20, with 221 paralytic.

The 315 cases last week compared with 201 in the corresponding 1957 week.

Michigan again led the states in reported cases. Its total of 93 last week compared with 159 in the week ended Sept. 27.

Ohio had an increase to 35 cases from 22 the week before.

No other state listed as many as 20 cases.

For the year there have been 4,007 reported cases up through Oct. 4, with 1,948 diagnosed as paralytic. Last year in the same period there were 5,045 cases, 1,677 of them paralytic.

Pleads Guilty to Selling Heroin

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A man accused of participating in a million-dollar narcotics business pleaded guilty today to the two charges of selling heroin.

He is Jack R. Clayton, 40, who posed as a pilot-sportsman and had a private airfield at his secluded home near Blue Springs, just east of Kansas City.

U. S. District Judge Albert A. Ridge deferred sentence pending an investigation of the man's background.

In one charge he was accused of selling 1,035 grams of heroin to a federal narcotics agent in Joplin, Mo. In the other he was charged with selling 1,067 grams to a federal agent at Mt. Pleasant, Tex.

O. J. Taylor, assistant U. S. district attorney, told the court the defendant admitted he began selling narcotics in 1953 or 1954.

He refused to reveal his source of supply, but it is believed he obtained the heroin in Chicago, Taylor said.

He said all of Clayton's system of selling narcotics was based on those of the national association of those of the national association.

The convention opened yesterday in Joplin, Mo., and will continue through the week.

Officers were to be elected to the new association.

Scottish Rite Club Meets Oct. 13

The program will prove to be most interesting and has been arranged by the Little Rock Group and will include as the speaker of the evening Morris Lewis who has long been active in Masonic Affairs.

NAACP Seeks Withdrawal of Motion

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Attorneys for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People today withdrew a motion seeking the reopening of Norfolk's six integration-closed white secondary schools.

Withdrawal came after U. S. District Judge Walter E. Hoffman said he would dismiss it because "we lack the proper parties" as defendants.

The Norfolk School Board was defendant. Hoffman was asked to enjoin the board and "all persons in active concert of participation" from interfering with the operation of the six schools under Hoffman's original desegregation order of Feb. 26, 1957.

During a one-hour argument by NAACP Adv. Oliver W. Hill, Hoffman said "you are in effect asking an injunction against the governor of Virginia, who is not a party to this proceeding."

Hoffman said it would be a waste of time to order the school board to reopen the schools because the schools are now under the control of Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. The schools were automatically closed Sept. 27, when 17 Negroes were enrolled in them.

"I don't see what good it would do to enter an order which the board cannot carry out," Hoffman said.

The judge said that an orderly course of administration of law would require that someone, perhaps a taxpayer, perhaps a parent, approach this matter directly and obtain an order that cannot be circumvented.

100 Attend Meet of State Nurses

Theme of the meeting is "Nursing for the Future."

The association's constitution was amended, its constitution and bylaws to conform more closely with those of the national association.

The convention opened yesterday in Port Smith, Ark., and will continue through the week.

Officers were to be elected to the new association.

U. S., Russia Sharply Split on Arms Debate

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The first round of the U. N. arms debate showed the United States and the Soviet Union so sharply split that diplomats saw little hope today of agreement on suspension of nuclear weapons tests.

So diametrically opposed were the two big powers that observers predicted a dark future for the Big Three negotiations that are to begin in Geneva on Oct. 31 on a test ban.

The United States, in the debate Friday, declared it would suspend tests indefinitely, provided there is a reasonable year-to-year progress in other fields of disarmament.

Russia insisted she would agree to halt the tests only if the United States and Britain accepted an immediate ban for "rail time."

The United States followed up its position by introducing its resolution Friday night for suspension of tests during the Geneva talks.

Neither the text nor the sponsorship was disclosed officially, but informed delegates said there were 17 sponsors, including the United States.

He listed the others as Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Britain, Canada, Denmark, Ecuador, Iran, Italy, Laos, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan and Thailand.

The resolution circulated freely among delegations in unofficial form recently, would have the U. N. General Assembly urge Britain, the Soviet Union, and United States make every effort to reach agreement on suspension of nuclear tests at Geneva.

It asks that the three nuclear powers undertake no further tests while the negotiations are in progress.

When war came, eight days after his broadcast, Pius XII turned his attention to alleviating its suffering as much as possible.

At war's end, recalling the havoc he had witnessed in Germany in 1918, he centered his efforts toward the establishment of "just and true peace."

But the end of World War II brought no peace to Pius XII or the church, he headed.

He thought, instead, a bitter, expanding attack of atheistic communism which produced new cataclysms in the East. The Pope referred to "the church of silence" that points to the fresh graves of her martyrs, the chains of her confessors. The end of the war brought more than 50 million Roman Catholics under Communist control.

From Yugoslavia to China and Korea, fierce Communist attacks were to result in a few years in slaying, jailing or banishment of priests and nuns, bishops, archbishops and even cardinals.

The church's struggle for existence in a large area of the world was the constant, deep sorrow of Pius XII. Correlated with it was his anxiety lest world war on atomic scale, should break out once more. All his Christmas messages hammered on the need for peace.

He described atomic weapons as "murderous and inhuman."

"Another world war," he said, recalling Genesis, "would be so destructive as to make the earth void and empty, a desolate chaos like to a desert over which the sun is not rising but setting."

But when the "unwearied advocate" for peace, as he had called himself, at last closed his eyes in rest, the dove of peace had not yet reached that true and just haven for which Pius XII had spoken, fought and prayed.

Nixon Says GOP Needs Backbone

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—What the Republican party needs to win in November is backbone, says Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The vice president urged his fellow Republicans Thursday to display "some of the same backbone" Harry Truman did in winning the 1948 election in the face of adverse forecasts.

"Let us resolve from this day forward," Nixon told an enthusiastic state GOP convention, "that we Republicans are not going to be defensive, apologetic or meekly mouthing in telling voters in this country about the magnificent record of the past and the great promise of the future if the sound progressive policies of our Republican administration in Washington are continued."

In comparing the Truman administration with the Sherman Adams case, Nixon called the Truman era "the most corrupt administration in history."

He said the difference between the Truman administration scandals and the Sherman Adams case was that "about the only way you could get people of government when Mr. Truman was president was to put them in jail."

'Peace' Was Favorite Word of Pope Pius

By FRANK BRUTTO

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The word "peace" more than any other was on the lips of Pius XII.

His concern with it had preceded his elevation to the papacy. In 1917, when he was only 42, Pope Benedict XV named him papal nuncio to Bavaria and instructed him to appeal to the Kaiser to end World War I.

Almost the first public words that Pius XII expressed—the day after his election March 2, 1939—were in behalf of peace, that "sublime gift from Heaven."

A few months later with the world again on the brink of war, he appealed to people and rulers of the world.

"Nothing is lost with peace; all may be lost with war," he warned.

When war came, eight days after his broadcast, Pius XII turned his attention to alleviating its suffering as much as possible.

At war's end, recalling the havoc he had witnessed in Germany in 1918, he centered his efforts toward the establishment of "just and true peace."

Man Decides to Stand Rest of Life

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Harry Biltz decided today to spend the rest of his life without sitting down.

Critically injured in an automobile wreck, Biltz will undergo surgery next week to end constant pain he has suffered for nearly a year. Doctors think this can be done by fusing his body in either a standing or sitting position. Biltz was given the choice.

Today he told newsmen he had decided on the standing position, calling it the lesser of two evils. The operation will relieve muscle pressure on nerves in his leg and pelvis but will prevent his bending at the waist.

No Authority to Abolish Government

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Pident Iskander Mirza says he had no legal authority for abolishing all government in Pakistan and taking personal control with the army.

"My authority is revolution," the former major general said Thursday night. "I have no sense of law or of constitution."

Mirza declared the constitution annulled Tuesday and named Gen. Mohammed Ayub Khan as chief administrator for martial law over Pakistan's 60 million inhabitants. The two career officers defended their coup in a talk with four Western reporters.

B&PW Club Here Noted for Many Worthy Civic Projects

By MARY ANITA LASETER

During National Business Women's Week which ends today, the eyes of the world, especially the world of women, have been focused upon Business and Professional Women and the federation of clubs which are pledged to their interests.

Established in 1919 at St. Louis, Mo., the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs now includes organizations in the 41 states, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia and is the largest organized group in the world devoted entirely to the affairs of business and professional women.

The Hope B&PW Club was founded in 1924 and its first president was Miss Beryl Henry. Though Miss Henry now lives in Benton, she still has an honorary membership in the local club. Since the club was organized in our town, 24 women have held the office of president. The one holding that honor and responsibility now is Miss Ross Harrie.

The members have always been interested in projects for worthy civic causes such as securing tables for Fair Park, furnishing a room at the Julia Chester Hospital and raising funds for the local Youth Center. During this year alone, the Hope B&PW Club has made two cash donations to the Youth Center.

Since 1934 when a Student Loan Fund was started under the guidance of Miss Margaret Simms, (now Mrs. Walter McDonald of Little Rock) this has been the chief project of the local Business and Professional Women's Club. The Student Loan Fund has aided boys and girls, regardless of race, color or creed in receiving higher education.

Like the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, the local organization is primarily concerned with women, and how the social, economic and political problems of every day living affect employed women particularly. However, it also wants to contribute to the establishment of conditions which will assure women and men as well, the fullest opportunities and reward for the development of whatever capacities they possess.

This woman's organization in Hope has always had one or more delegates to the state and district board meetings and just recently it was hostess to one of the largest district conferences in the history of B&PW Clubs in Southwest Arkansas.

"Achieve Through Action — Today!" the theme of the recent convention, and "More Power With Womanpower," the theme of the 1958 National Business Women's Week, are both symbolic of the organization known throughout the world as National Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Movieland Has New Breed of Millionaires

By BOB THOMAS

AP Motion Picture Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A revamp of movie economics has created a new breed of millionaire star. Missionaries are nothing new in Hollywood. Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd, William S. Hart and Douglas Fairbanks made fabulous money and paid little tax on it.

But their breed died out with silent films and the rise of the major studios. Then most stars were paid weekly salaries, and rising income taxes dug into their take.

Now the movie power has shifted to the major studios to the stars. Especially a scintillating couple dozen. All 12 are either millionaires or well on their way. They are amassing their millions not by working on a straight salary.

Says Cary Grant: "I get dozens of offers to do pictures for $750,000. It's not difficult to get a million dollars for a picture. A fellow like Marlon Brando could probably make five million in a year if he wanted to work that hard. But what good would it do him? He'd lose nearly all of it in taxes."

Adds Frank Sinatra: "No matter how much I earn, 91 cents out of every dollar goes to the government. Out of that remaining 9 cents, I've got to pay all of the living expenses for myself and my family. It's ridiculous for me to keep adding straight income to my total earnings. I've got to find ways to keep some money."

All the top stars have come to the realization that they are now not only actors but financial experts as well. They and their advisers have devised means of operation that are not tax evasions but perfectly legal ways of avoiding a salaried income. Here they are:

1. The production company. This is a throwback to the days when Pickford, Chaplin, Fairbanks and D. W. Griffith formed United Artists. It has become popular recently both as a means of earning and keeping more money and maintaining artistic control of a production.

Most of the golden dozen stars have tried their own companies. The most successful is Burt Lancaster's firm, which hit it rich with "Marty," "Trapeze," etc.

Others haven't fared so well. William Holden has yet to show a profit on his one production, "Toward the Unknown." His company is now inactive. He explains: "I found I was so concerned with production details I didn't devote enough time to my job as an actor. I don't want to be a big shot behind a desk in Hollywood. There are too many parts of the world I still want to see."

Tony Curtis agrees. "I wasn't cut out to be a business man. That's why he and others prefer:

2. The coproduction deal. A

Missouri Girl Queen at Blytheville

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Pretty blonde Sarah Kay Burns, 17, of Caruthersville, Mo., was crowned queen of the 13th annual National Cotton Picking Contest here last night.

The race for the $1,000 prize and title of world champion cotton picker, climax of the four-day contest, got under way this morning. The winner will be announced this afternoon.

Each picker will be judged on the quantity picked, how clean the rows are picked and how clean the cotton is after picking.

Duncan Renaldo, the Cisco Kid on television, crowned blue-eyed Miss Burns. It was her ninth beauty contest victory in 18 months.

Miss Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Burns of Caruthersville, is a high school senior. Her height is 5-9, she weighs 120 pounds, and her measurements are 36-23-37.

Eighteen girls from Arkansas, Missouri and Tennessee vied for the title of queen.

Runnersup were Bonnie Brinkley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brinkley of Whitehaven, Tenn., and Margaret Farris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Farris of Blytheville.

Last year's queen was Ann Lipsey of Whitehaven. Miss Burns will reign over the cotton picking contest and the Grand Cotton Ball tonight. She receives a $500 wardrobe.

Negro Gang Attacks N. Y. Students

NEW YORK (AP)—Sixteen Negro teen-agers attacked a number of white high school students on a Brooklyn elevated train yesterday. Authorities blamed the attack on racial unrest.

The racial conflict began Wednesday a Franklin K. Lane High School in Brooklyn. Three white boys attacked some Negro youths outside the school. School officials termed the assault unprovoked and suspended two of the white boys. The third was not a student.

Principal Harry Eisner commented: "I believe that the insecurity and unrest between Negroes and whites has been provoked by the situation in Arkansas and Virginia."

Superintendent of Schools John Theobald termed the student battles "a most deplorable situation, fanning," "white boys" and colored boys are "equally blameworthy."

Police said the 16 boys were arrested, "yesterday," are members of the Slammers youth gang, but declared that gang warfare had nothing to do with the battle aboard the train. There were no injuries.

The youths, all under 16 years of age, were charged with juvenile delinquency. Police said one 15-year-old was carrying a home-made gun and had three bullets in his pocket.

On the station platform where the boys were picked up, police found a shopping bag containing a dagger, a kitchen knife, a hunting knife, a meat cleaver and a sweater.

Four Jail Escapees Are Recaptured

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Four persons who escaped from the Garland County Jail Tuesday night were back in custody today.

Sheriff Leonard Ellis said Rayburn C. Carpenter, 18, was arrested at nearby Mountain Pine last night.

The sheriff said that Billy Ray Anderson, 24, was returned to jail by his father.

Earlier, the sheriff had reported, Billy Joe Niblett and Larry Wayne Taber, both 17, were returned by Taber's father.

Ellis said an automobile stolen here the night of the jail break was found at Mountain Pine.

The four youths were held in connection with auto theft charges Ellis said.

They escaped by prying a lock from a second floor door and crawling through a plumbing vent and out a rear window.

studio or producer takes care of all the details. The star offers his advice and performance and becomes a partner in the deal. This system was pioneered by James Stewart, who made millions with his half-interest in such films as "Winchester '73" and "The Glenn Miller Story."

Stewart's earnings are strictly income, but he also owns half of the negative. With such films as "Bear of the South," "Vertigo," he and Alfred Hitchcock will end up owning the entire negative.

3. The net or 4. The gross. Producers prefer to share a percentage of the profits with the stars. But since a film must earn double its cost before it can show a profit, stars are beginning to prefer a percentage of the gross. By taking 10 per cent of every box office dollar for "The Vikings" and "Kings Go Forth," Tony Curtis expects to earn 14 million dollars. Some stars prefer to take such earnings with

5. The spread. Contracts can be phrased to limit payments of film income to so much each year. The most famous is Richard Widmark's deal which maxes him $500,000 annually for the next 50 years.

Date Set for East, West Technical Talks

WASHINGTON (CZP)—The United States today accepted Nov. 10 as the starting date for East-West technical talks at Geneva on how to prevent surprise attack.

The State Department made public a diplomatic note delivered to the Soviet Foreign Ministry today, agreeing to the date proposed by Russia.

The note called for participation in the meeting by experts from the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Italy and possibly others.

Russia, in agreeing to the Soviet Union, Romania, Czechoslovakia and Poland as Soviet bloc countries to send experts.

The Nov. 10 meeting would follow the pattern of the conference on scientists at Geneva last summer on ways to control and supervise a suspension of nuclear weapons tests.

Another Nuclear Test Is Set Off

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The fourth nuclear detonation in the current 10-shot test series was fired at Yucca Flat in the Nevada test site desert today.

It was a little fellow as atomic blasts go, and one of the smallest fired here: The Atomic Energy Commission said it was in the sub-kiloton range, meaning it had a force of less than 1,000 tons of TNT.

The device was fired from a 100-foot steel tower. A dull boom was heard at the control point 11 miles away. Observers in Las Vegas, 40 miles southeast of the test site, saw a faint flash.

There have been two balloon shots and one underground tunnel test in the series designed to test smaller nuclear weapons. The series is planned to end by Oct. 31, the date President Eisenhower has proposed as the start of a one-year test ban.

The next in the series is scheduled for Sunday a tower shot at Frenchman Flat which is adjacent to Yucca Flat.

U. S., Britain Set on Special Ambassadors

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Britain are sticking to their idea that special ambassadors—not their foreign ministers—should seek to negotiate an agreement, banning nuclear weapons tests.

The two governments have drafted a note to Moscow turning down a Soviet proposal that foreign ministers of the three powers meet at Geneva Oct. 31 for that purpose.

Diplomatic informants indicated, however, that the Western powers would leave the way open for a possible meeting of foreign ministers to ratify such an agreement if and when it has been worked out by East-West negotiators at a lower level.

Some diplomats said that in drafting the note the Washington and London governments sought to give a "yes but" reply to the Soviet Union's unexpected call for a conference of foreign ministers.

Their purpose, it was said, was to avoid being placed in a completely negative position in a position which the Soviet government might use as an excuse for scuttling the projected Geneva meeting entirely.

The three powers had agreed earlier that they would meet at Geneva Oct. 31 to negotiate on the political problems of a test suspension agreement.

Several Soviet maneuvers in recent weeks have led high officials here and in London to fear that the Soviet government may be pulling back from a workable test suspension plan.

One was the Soviet resumption of testing after she had announced last March 31 she was suspending nuclear weapons tests, and after the United States and Britain had said they were ready to suspend tests by Oct. 31.

Another was her surprise proposal that the Oct. 31 Geneva meeting, to which she previously had agreed, be raised to the foreign ministers' level.

The last came in New York this week in a statement by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. He said the Soviets wanted the United Nations to vote for an immediate suspension of testing by all countries. But he also said that the Soviet Union needed to continue tests until it had equaled the number of test explosions recorded by the United States and Britain since March 31.

Such a test program would extend beyond the scheduled opening of the Geneva meeting.

Auto Sniping Youth Arrested Thursday

JONESBORO, ARK. (AP)—An 18-year-old sniper who ambushed cars on a rural road near here was captured yesterday.

Sheriff Lonnie Cooper said the youth lives near Jonesboro. The boy was arrested when officers cornered him in a field north of here.

He had eluded police pursuers earlier yesterday, but dropped his .22-caliber rifle in flight.

At least four cars were struck in the ambush Wednesday night, police said. Kenneth Evans, 32, one of the motorists, was grazed in the left arm by a slug.

The youth was held in Craighead County Jail on an open charge.

Americans Get Better Mail Service

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Americans are getting better, speedier mail service under a modern, streamlined program but it is costing the government nearly a million dollars a day, the department says.

Postmaster General Arthur W. Summerville told the National League of Postmasters in an address read by an assistant that the department will have "a staggering 361-million-dollar deficit this year."

He said higher postal rates added 450 million dollars to revenue but new salary increases will take 275 million and increased mail rates to railroads and other new costs will take the remainder.

Bad Luck Dogging April Brothers

BRIDGETON, N.J. (AP)—Bad luck is dogging Cumberland County Freeholder Max April.

His car turned over in August and he was thrown out, suffering serious bruises.

Last month, the April Brothers orchard in Millville had a fire with damage running to $150,000.

Thursday night, April hobbled into the Board of Freeholders meeting on crutches. He explained he fell off a platform.

New Approach on Radioactive Waste Starts

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—A new approach to the formidable problem of disposing of radioactive wastes has been started at the Atomic Energy Commission's eastern Idaho testing station west of here.

To illustrate the problem, Dr. Richard F. Post of the University of California's Radiation Laboratory once said that if all present power were supplied by nuclear fission reactors, "we would have to dispose each year of an amount of radio-active fission products equal to that from the explosion of 200,000 atomic bombs."

That makes current fall-out problems from the few nuclear bombs exploded each year seem trivial.

The new method takes the liquid (water is often used to cool or moderate the reactor) radioactive waste and dries it in a flash by spraying it across hot granular beds.

The waste left is a solid occupying a great deal less space than when it was in the liquid. Scientists of the Phillips 34AIBP/REUM and Argonne National Laboratory who developed the process estimate it will reduce the volume of waste to about a seventh its previous bulk.

The solidified waste can then be stored in a much smaller space than required to store the liquid in tanks.

Chinese Ask to Extend Cease-fire

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The United States called on Red China today to extend the cease-fire at Quemoy, authoritative sources reported.

Informants said U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam urged the step when he met Wang Ping-nan of Red China for a seventh, and possibly crucial, session of their series of talks on the Formosa crisis.

The cease-fire proclaimed by Red China Sunday expires in two days. The meeting lasted 2 hours and 35 minutes. Next meeting will be Oct. 15.

Bobcats Turn Back Stubborn Crossett

Coach John Pierce's Bobcats journeyed to Crossett last night and met a fired up bunch of Eagles, but managed to slip away with a very important 7-0 district victory.

This was the first time since 1950 that the Eagles were beaten on their home field.

The only touchdown of the game came in the second quarter when the Bobcats driving 31 yards in only four plays, Fullback Don Boothe raced the final 21 yards for the touchdown and Johnny Graves converted.

Hope almost got another one in the final minutes of the second period when Jerry Thurman recovered an Eagle fumble on the Crossett nine. The Bobcats drove to the one but the stout Crossett defense held as the half ended.

Crossett took the kickoff opening the final period and marched to midfield but was forced to punt. Johnny Graves took it on the 15 and scumpered 30 yards right up the middle but again the rugged Crossett defense checked the drive.

The rest of the contest was even with neither club able to penetrate deep enough for a serious scoring threat. It was a very hard fought game with Hope piling up the statistics but only one touchdown.

The victory gave the Bobcats an inside track in district play with two victories. Next week Hope entertained another conference foe in Fairview of Camden.

The Statistics:

	Hope	Crossett
First Downs	15	5
Yards rushing	250	90
Yards passing	15	0
Passes	9	5
Completions	2	0

Lebanon Ends Trial of Ex-Premier

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Iraq's special military court has completed the trial of Fadhil Jamali on charges of crimes against the state and people during the monarchy. He is in prison awaiting the verdict.

Advices from Baghdad today are that the ex-premier, former foreign minister and former chief of the Iraqi delegation to the U. N., may not learn his fate for weeks.

The five-man court, set up after the revolutionary government after the overthrow and killing of King Faisal in July, reportedly intends to complete the trials of all accused leaders of the king's regime before announcing the verdicts.

Deserter Freed, Back With French Wife

RIBEMONT, France (AP)—Walter Powers was back from a U.S. Army stockade today with the French woman who hid him during 14 years as a deserter and gave him four children.

The couple is expected to be married soon, although Powers made no announcement after his release Thursday. He said earlier he planned to wed Yvette Belouse.

Powers, 37, of Chillicothe, Mo., was arrested last March in the tiny village of Mont d'Origny when French police finally came across him. He was court-martialed and sentenced to 10 years in prison but this was reduced to six months.

Many a New Western Comes to TV

By BOB THOMAS

AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The new TV season has brought forth untempered Westerns and one Southern, sub. name of Yancy Derringer.

This Derringer is a cold character of post-belle New Orleans who carries three firing arms bearing his own name. Except for a mustache and a vaguely lacerous nature, you might take him for another. TV idol named the Range Rider, or he might pass for Jack Hannon, star of Universal International movies.

All are the same guy, a lowering, muscular ex-soldier man who is now embarking on his fourth career in films. And this one seems to be the most promising to date.

Jack graduated from falling off cliffs and horses to make 78 Range Rider half-hours. Then he did 11 features for U-I.

"I returned from Germany after doing a small but meaty part in 'A Time to Love and a Time to Die' and found out that the 'stud' had dropped out of the studio," he said. "They didn't know when they'd be in business again and suggested I consider TV offers."

One was to do Raynes "Cimarron City." He was offered $70,000 a year on a flat salary. Jack said he'd work for $40,000 if he could share in the profits to avoid paying much of his income to taxes.

No deal. Then U-I asked if he'd like to have his freedom. Jack impulsively said yes.

"There I was owning only my house and having no income," he remarked. "It happened so suddenly that I didn't have time to line up another job."

But his action had the endorsement of the family council—his lovely wife Margaret and three children. Their confidence was justified. The offers started coming in most of them for Westerns.

He shied away from "The Lone Rider" and "The Range Rider" and picked up "Yancy Derringer."

Now the show is comfortably lent.

McDougald Is Credited by Casey Stengel

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — "Gil McDougald came through for us with some amazing plays and we just wound up looking like the real New York Yankees."

That was Manager Casey Stengel's capsule sizeup of his Yankees' triumph over the Milwaukee Braves in the World Series.

Although Thursday's 6-3 Yankee victory in the seventh and deciding series game had Mose Skowron, Bob Turley and Elston Howard as primary heroes, McDougald was New York's big playmaker and brawler in the uphill Yankee battle over the entire series.

"You see we didn't look so hot fielding or base running early in the series," said Stengel. "Our pitching is fine but it takes Mr. McDougald to settle us down. He made some plays that were splendid—actually amazing."

Second sacker McDougald also wound up with a .321 series batting average, topped on the Yankee squad only by Hank Bauer's .323. McDougald's 5 hits in 20 trips included 2 homers and 2 doubles.

Actually, this appeared to be a World Series the Braves forgot to win — only because the Yankees started to remember they were the Yankees.

While everybody was swooning over the great one-two Braves pitching punch of Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, Yankee pitchers made a series of errors that may stand for many years.

Headed by Whitely Ford's 13 strikeouts, seven Yankee pitchers whiffed 36 Braves to break the 20-year-old series record of 50 set by the Philadelphia A's against the Chicago Cubs.

It was the old Yankee recipe of timely homers which broke Milwaukee's back. They belted 10 homers against only 3 by the Braves.

One of Milwaukee's homers was a swat by pitcher Burdette, one by leadoff man Bill Bruton and one by catcher Ed Crandall. None of Milwaukee's long ball artists—Hank Aaron, Wes Covington, Ed Matthews or Joe Adcock — could reach the fence.

The key blow of the series may have been delivered by Howard. A single off Burdette after Yogi Berra doubled to start the big Yankee inning.

Going into the eighth, Burdette had allowed only three hits and none figured in New York's two-run second. When Berra slugged the two-bagger with two out in the eighth, everybody expected the Braves would order a pass for Howard to fill first and make a force play possible at third to second.

ALC Seeking to Control College Cash

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Paul Van Dalsem wants the Legislature to control cash funds belonging to the University of Arkansas and other state colleges.

He announced yesterday that a bill is being prepared to form schools to bank their cash with the state.

At a meeting of the Arkansas Legislative Council's special committee on Education, the Perry County Legislator warned presidents of several schools:

"I think it would be in your best interest to co-operate in this proposal. The plan has a lot of support over the state."

The cash fund issue will be studied further by the committee and a report will be made to the full Legislative Council.

Cash funds involve income other than state appropriations. Such income includes tuition, federal grants, athletic fees and rentals.

Schools can spend room cash funds without clearing each expenditure with the Legislature.

Van Dalsem charged that depositing of cash funds in local banks has an adverse effect on banks in non-college towns. As an example of the amount of money involved in cash funds, he pointed out that the University of Arkansas gets a state appropriation of eight million dollars while its cash fund totals about 10 millions.

Heads of schools retorted that placing cash funds in the state treasury would cause fiscal trouble and put an extra accounting burden on the state.

Dr. John T. Caldwell, president of the University of Arkansas, defended the current setup.

"We place most of these cash funds in short term securities that earn interest," he said. "Why, last year the University picked up $62,000 more income from this source."

"Are you a financial or an educational institution?" snapped Van Dalsem.

"I can't see how anyone can argue about a sound financial program," Dr. Caldwell rejoined.

Van Dalsem has often attacked the policy of permitting cash funds to be administered outside of the Legislature.

He summed up his position yesterday by saying:

"There ain't a thing fair about the whole deal."

In this day to make it run, Then he would shoot me."

"Louis knows better than that. Come on."

Jogging along, Lane mullied over what Scharr had told him at the corral. Lane speculated as Cole's reaction if he should report the conversation. There was no use. Cole wouldn't believe it. He would think it was spite on Lane's part. On his first night in Twenty Springs, Lane had tried to set the sheriff straight as to Scharr's true nature, and had failed.

Lane began to build a smoke, the bridge reins pressed between a couple of fingers of his left hand. All at once Scharr gazed at his horse viciously with a spurt. The animal lunged against Lane's fall from his saddle, pitching head-first into the stream, and splashing onto his back, and splashing him. The plume revived him.

Spluttering, he tried to gain his feet and at the same time keep out of the way of Scharr's rearing, jumping mount. The deputy was trying to make the horse yamper.

Lane's horse bellowed, "Louis, I'll shoot you!"

"The deputy reined his horse away, putting him up the bank beside Cole's mount. He was laughing with vindictive humor.

"That ain't no way to do a prisoner, Louis!"

"I know it isn't, Sherd. Been anybody else but him. I wouldn't have done it. I didn't hurt him any."

Lane stood there halfway up the slope, wringing water out of his shirttail. He wished he had a gun. He told himself he could take one shot, and then run. From Cole's shoulder, both plumb out of Lane's Stingers Valley.

Except The LORD Build The HOUSE They Labor In Vain That Build It

Did you ever visit Never, Never Land? Perhaps you need to go there. Here are a few of the things you should know about: —
NEVER take God too lightly... for granted, NEVER underestimate the value of His church in the community... it is the center of good influence. NEVER desecrate her walls... they have been scarred by sincere worship of good people. NEVER fail to uphold the hands of your pastor... he is God's Under-Shepherd of the flock. NEVER detract from good influence... don't spread false rumors. NEVER withhold from His church your solid financial support... give Him His tenth, — give gladly, — regularly, — systematically. NEVER let your pew be unoccupied for the regular worship service... your presence, your prayers barometer your soul. NEVER fail to acknowledge "it all comes from God"... without Him we can do nothing.

You In The Church
